Lunuganga Geoffrey Bawa's Country Estate | Time from the hotel by car : 15 - 20 minutes

No place reveals the soul of Geoffrey Bawa, the acclaimed Sri Lankan architect, better than his country home, Lunuganga. Being in 1948 a rubber estate, over fifty years, he transformed it into one of the most seductive, passionate pleasure gardens of the twentieth century.

Elements of Italian Renaissance gardens, English landscaping, Japanese garden art, and the water gardens of ancient Sri Lanka are all blended classical Greco-Roman statues, and bacchanalian grotesque sculptures, being Bawa's most extravagant creation and testament.

Madu Ganga Boat Safari | Time from the hotel by car : 30 minutes

Known locally as "The river of 100 islands", where we can find a great variety of Buddhist and Hindu temples and, in those that are inhabited, small houses where cinnamon and its oil are produced, it also houses one of the largest mangroves of the island.

The Kothduwa Buddhist Temple is located on an isolated island in Lake Madu Ganga, connected by two narrow channels with Lake Randombe, which together with the river constitute an ecosystem of wetlands that were declared in 2003 "Environment of International Importance" by the Ramsar Convention of Wetlands, with a high ecological, biological and aesthetic significance, housing 303 species of plants from 95 families and 248 species of vertebrate animals.

Sunset Boat Tour on Bentota River | Time from the hotel by car : 10 minutes

The name "Bentota" comes from Sinhalese mythology that says that it was a demon called "Bem" who twisted this river (Tota in Sinhalese means river), giving rise to the name Bem-tota (Bentota). Bentota is a historical place described in the ancient poems of the Sinhalese culture (Sandésa kavya). The Galapatha Viharaya is one of the five ancient temples in the region.

Launch on a boat safari on the Bentota River, the third largest river in Sri Lanka, is a delightfully relaxing cruise, to spot an array of reptiles and birds including crocodiles, snakes, bats, lizards and eagles, away from the world as you know it.

Richmond Castle | Time from the hotel by car : 30 minutes

Richmond Castle is an Edwardian architectural gem built between 1900 and 1910, which belonged to Don Arthur De Silva Wijeyesinghe, the Mudaliyar of the Kalutara District, being a symbol of splendor and power, where large banquets were held for dignitaries in the country, who enjoyed exquisite delicacies prepared by an own crew of cooks, in the magnificent banquet hall where a troop of 50 artists performed their shows, protected by a small private army. Ruling upon 42 acres, Richmond Castle has accomplished some very amazing feats of structural design, such as an underground air conditioning system created with the river's water, the magnificent carpentry work on its giant staircase, or the ingenious techniques to guarantee the acoustic and thermal insulation of the rooms. But this fairytale however had a tragic ending that you will only discover if you visit Richmond Castle.

Sinharaja Rainforest | Time from the hotel by car : 2 hours

The Sinharaja Forest Reserve, which in Sinhalese means “The lion’s kingdom”, is a National Park of the Rainforest type of 8,561 hectares, with dense vegetation and a great wealth of endemic species that includes trees, insects, amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals.

It was designated by Unesco “Biosphere Reserve” in 1978 and “World Heritage Site” in 1988.

Colombo | Time from the hotel by car : 90 minutes

The city that never sleeps. A fantastic excursion to enjoy a modern city, with countless samples of British and Dutch architecture and a vibrant ethnic heritage, where you can spend a day of shopping in its large malls or in the countless shops of Galle Road, visit places like the National Museum, Independence Square, Galle Face Green, the Red Mosque (Jami Ul-Alfar), the Zoo, the old Dutch Market, or magnificent temples such as Gangaramaya, Isipathanaramaya, Vajiraramaya, Sri Kailawasanathan Swami Devasthanam, Sri Ponnambalam Vanesar Kovil, or the Sri Kailawasanathan Swami Devasthanam Kovil, enjoy a leisurely stroll in Victoria Park or treat yourself to a magnificent dinner on one of the terraces of the Park Street Mews restaurants. Whatever your plan, Colombo will not disappoint.

Galle Fort | Time from the hotel by car : 1 hour and 15 minutes

According to historians, Galle is the ancient port of Tarsis from where, according to the Bible, King Solomon sent ivory, peacocks, spices or cinnamon. Galle was an important sea port for Persians, Arabs, Greeks, Romans, Malays, Indians and Chinese, and in 1663 the Dutch made Galle the current fortified city, with a mix of Portuguese and native architectural styles. Galle Fort is an UNESCO World Heritage Site and the largest remaining fortress in Asia built by European settlers. Other places of tourist interest are the natural harbor, the National Maritime Museum, the Cathedral of Saint Mary or one of the main Shiva temples on the island. We also find the Galle International Stadium which is considered one of the most picturesque cricket grounds in the world.

Mirissa Whale Watching | Time from the hotel by car : 90 minutes

Being one of its natural habitats on its migratory journey, Sri Lanka and especially Mirissa, offer you the possibility of having one of the most incredible experiences in the world, with the sighting of the blue whale, the largest animal on the planet, and always playful dolphins that will accompany you throughout this trip in the middle of the Indian Ocean.

If you want to enjoy one of the most beautiful experiences that Sri Lanka's biodiversity has to offer, you cannot miss it.

Udawalawe National Park | Time from the hotel by car : 2 hours and 30 minutes

Udawalawe National Park is entirely open country, with teak trees on the banks of the rivers which covers 306 km² and was established in 1972.

This reserve has about 400 Asian elephants, around a dozen leopards, large numbers of crocodiles, golden jackals, Indian buffalo, and certain species of primates, among other animals. The open plains attract birds of prey such as eagles, while storks and other wandering birds are often found in the swamps. Among the land birds, the most common are peacocks, clamator jacobinus, coracias benghalensis and others.

Yala National Park | Time from the hotel by car : 3 hours

Yala National Park is the most visited in Sri Lanka and the second largest in the country with 979 km², being one of the largest reserves of leopards in the world. In Yala we also find animals as elephants, crocodiles, different types of reptiles, Indian buffalo, the Sinhalese bear, the peacock and hundreds of ornithological species. Yala was named a “Wildlife Sanctuary” in 1900 and is one of the first two areas designated as a National Park in 1938. It is also one of the 70 “Important Bird Areas” (IBAs) in Sri Lanka, with the presence of 215 species bird’s.

Very close to the park is the ancient Buddhist monastery of Sithupawwa, in whose nearby caves there are cave paintings. To the southwest of the park is Magul Maha Viharaya, which also preserves ancient Buddhist ruins. Both temples are places of pilgrimage.

Kosgoda Sea Turtles Conservation Centres | Time from the hotel by car : 15 minutes

Along the southern coast of Sri Lanka there are 18 turtle hatcheries, where you can enjoy meeting these curious reptiles that have evolved from the Triassic Era over millions of years. On the coasts of Sri Lanka you can see species such as the Leatherbacks, the largest and oldest sea turtle, which has existed for 150 million years, the Green Turtles, the Loggerheads, the Hawksbills or the Olive Ridley Turtles.

Do not miss the experience of recovering in your hands small newborn turtles babies after the eggs hatch in the sand or learn the secrets and curiosities of these ancient animals.

Brief Garden by Bevis Bawa | Time from the hotel by car : 20 minutes

Bevis Bawa was an artist and one of Sri Lanka’s most renowned landscape architects. Bevis’s younger brother was Geoffrey Bawa, considered one of the most important and influential Asian architects of the 20th century. Bevis Bawa’s legendary garden and his residence have hosted personalities such as Sir Lawrence Olivier, Vivien Leigh and Agatha Christie among others and it was what inspired his brother to create “Lunuganga-Geoffre Bawa’s Country Estate”. The garden that has been open to the public since 1970, is a novel place that has not been modified in 85 years, with more than 106 types of trees distributed in 20 acres of land and hundreds of other species of fauna and flora, being a must-see for lovers of landscaping. The house also features an eclectic range of artwork, from homoerotic sculptures to a wonderful mural of Sri Lankan life in the style of Marc Chagall.
