Theme Park

This is a detailed aerial illustration of a theme park resort. The park is divided into several distinct zones. In the upper left, there's a 'Theme Park' area with a yellow roller coaster, a blue river, and various water-based games. To the right, a blue roller coaster winds through a green landscape. The central part of the resort features a large, ornate building with a red-roofed tower, surrounded by pools and walkways. At the bottom center is the 'Kingdom Hotel', a large, pinkish-purple building with multiple domes and minarets. To the right of the hotel is a 'Shopping Avenue' with a curved road and parked cars.
